It was a good Day

Sarah started off with $2 for Dick substituting for her last week when she had an employee call in sick at the bank. Shanna gave $2, one for each child she brought into this world on this day in years past. Dick gave a happy $ that Shanna didn't bring the swine flu back from her Mexico trip. He also gave a happy $ for the new eatery in town (Capitol Saloon).

Steve gave a $ for the nice day at the Creelman –Francisco Tournament even if we didn't bring home the trophy. Howard gave a happy $ for winning the $300 pot at the tournament, Also gave a happy $ for finally getting a copy of the Newsletter. He then $ paid for his Kiwanis Anniversary which was announced last week. Sarah wasn't there and gave another sad $.

Marv gave $ for making his 1st birdie at Creelman- Francisco; and Frank gave a happy $ a/c Marv finally bought a pitcher of beer after 35 years in the club.

Chuck gave a sad $ a/c he didn't have any money on the winner at the Kentucky Derby. Russell gave a happy $ and reported that Frank sez Annie is getting better. Ben gave a happy $ to report his back is O.K. and he can do MOW now. Dee Dee gave a happy $ because we are a good club and Dick and Marv filled in for Ben so nicely. Stephanie gave $2 for vacation to Monterey last week but she missed Barry who gave $5 for a week of good weather there even including a round at Poppy Hills because of wife's contact with a Caddie. Barry also gave some sad $ for forgetting to leave the team trophy behind for Chuck to take to the Creelman- Francisco Classic. Sarah wanted to but a dress on it.

Sarah fined Steve for no pin and Marv for club Shirt but no pin

Steve fessed up and told us all about how he knew the difference about wearing pins on meeting Monday to show that we are proud to be a Kiwanian People like Howard, Rich, Frank and Bob should be prepared to be ready to pay up next week.
